

GOBLES SUPERINTENDENT APPOINTED TO AASA GOVERNING BOARD

Jeffery Rehlander, Superintendent
Gobles Public Schools, Gobles, Michigan

The Michigan Association of School Administrators (MASA) Executive Board has appointed Jeff Rehlander, Superintendent, Gobles Public Schools, Gobles, Michigan to serve on the School Superintendent's Association (AASA) Governing Board 2014-2016. There are four school leaders from the State of Michigan who serve on the National Governing Board. The School Superintendent's Association (AASA) is the professional organization for 13,000 educational leaders in the United States and throughout the world. The organization is the primary advocate for children in the United States and members work to provide the highest quality public education for all students, while also working to support individual school district leaders. As a member of the National Governing Board, Rehlander will represent the State of Michigan in national conversations about public education and leadership and development of school administrators, and also report back to school administrators in the State of Michigan regarding the work of the National Governing Board. The School Superintendent's Association (AASA) divides the nation into seven regions, and Rehlander and the other State of Michigan representatives serve in Region 3 along with school leaders from Iowa, Minnesota, North Dakota, Nebraska, South Dakota, and Wisconsin.
